The Chillicothe Constitution gave an account of a shooting scrape that took place in Linneus last week. The participants in the fracas were Elmer Messner, a young druggist, and Riehard Johnson, circuit clerk of Linn county. Messner is alleged to have shot at Johnson three times, his bullet missing the mark each time. Messner is a married man and bears a good reputation. Johnson is prominent in Linn county politics and is unmarried. The cause that led up to the shooting is not given out, friends of both parties suppressing all reports they can. It was reported Thursday that Johnson had left Linneus.

MARRIAGES.

Lem Waite of Chula and Miss Mattie Powell of Chillicothe.

Clairence Capp of Dawn and Miss Amey M. Rose of Chillicothe.

Chas. H. McVay, 48 years old, conductor on the Burlington out of Brookfield, was found dead in bed in his room at the Q. hotel in Brookfield Monday. Deceased had lost a large sum of money playing dice with two Brookfield gamblers, and had purchased a bottle of chloroform. At first it was thought McVay had killed himself, but the bottle of chloroform was found unopened. His wife and four sons survive him.

Miss Alta Loutham of Linneus fell on the icy pavement Monday and sprained one of her ankles. Her brother, Lonnie Loutham, was injured Tuesday at the Superior Staker factory by a pile of iron falling on him, cutting and bruising him badly.

Chas. Smith, who styles himself a wanderer, is now reposing in the jail at Linneus for attacking James Rehill at Marceline and robbing him of $9 and some small change. Rehill received a hard blow on the head and was badly choked. Smith claims to have been drunk at the time.

MARRIAGES.

Chas. S. Burch and Miss Edna A. Fruin, both of Linneus.

Eugene King of Chicago and Miss Kathryn Felt of LaCade.

Walter E. Sproul of Washington and Miss Marion Lee Watson, formerly of Linneus.

MACON.

The Macon public school has installed portable canvas fire escapes which can be attached to any window.

The cottage of Wm. Archer caught fire in Macon Friday night and burned down. There was little insurance.

The dwelling of Bill Leland, col., in Macon caught fire Thursday and was badly damaged before the fire was put out.

Joseph W. Murphy, aged 63 years, formerly of Macon county, died Saturday in Colorado. His widow and three sons survive him.

A head-on collision between a freight train and the ice train occurred on the Wabash, north of Atlanta, Monday. The cabooses and some box cars were derailed and caught fire and burned.

The upper works of mine 25 at Keota caught fire Sunday night and were entirely consumed. This throws 300 men out of employment and destroys over $5,000 worth of property. The origin of the blaze is unknown.

Joseph Moxley, a farmer of near Lingo, was brought over from New Cambria yesterday to be placed in the local infirmary. A few days ago Moxley was served with a warrant charging him with stealing timber. It seems he had cut some timber off the farm he had under lease, as he possibly felt entitled to. Soon after being placed under arrest he became morbid and wandered aimlessly about. It was impossible to gather any coherent statement from him. While at the courthouse, awaiting removal to the infirmary, Moxley kept placing his hands on top of his head, and the back of his neck, as if suffering great pain. Now and then he would throw his attendants aside, rise up and reach out his arms. "Where's the man!" he would cry. "I'll fix it! I'll fix it!" Moxley has, it is said, always borne a good reputation. He is about 50 years old and has a family.—Macon Republican.

MARRIAGES.

Otis Halley and Miss Minnie Cox, both of Excelsior.

Samuel Tipton and Miss Mag gie Lowrey, both of Macon.

Jesse Polston of Moberly has bought the 70-acre farm of Billy Dameron, located near Huntsville.

A. M. Mills has sold his 160-acre farm, near Moberly, to L. E. Daniels of Carrollton for $75 per acre.

Mathias S. Turner, a pioneer citizen of Randolph county, passed away Wednesday at his home in Prairie Hill.

Sears Bros. of Clifton Hill have sold their 287-acre farm, near Brookfield, to R. B. Lambert for $55 per acre.

W. E. Halliburton, 37 years old, a farmer of near Jackson, died of pneumonia Wednesday. His wife and five children mourn his death.

The engagement of Miss Mattie Haworth of Moberly to John M. Hinman of Decatur, Ill., has been announced, the marriage to occur in February.

The Moberly water-works bonds that were to be given to the Chicago firm, which was successful in bidding for the bond issue, were not taken on account of an alleged flaw.

Mrs. F. X. Forster, aged 81 years, died of paralysis Saturday at the home of her son, E. M. Forster of Huntsville. Deceased was a native of North Carolina and is survived by four sons.

Acy Smith, a farmer, aged 50 years, of near Cairo, took his own life Monday by hanging himself. Smith's lifeless body was found dangling from the rafter of a shed room. His act was due to despondency over his ill health.

In the usually quiet and peaceful neighborhood of Cairo a terrible tragedy occurred Sunday. Everett Nichols, aged 45 years, was so badly beaten over the head with an iron poker in the hands of Wm. Vineyard that he died within a short time. The testimony of Vineyard's mother-in-law, Mrs. Ames, makes him out a cold blooded murderer. Nichols and Vineyard lived in the same house on the same farm, near Cairo, and disputed over the ownership of a stove. Vineyard states that Nichols, with a revolver in his pocket, started to take down the stove pipe Sunday morning and that he, Vineyard, hit him on the head with a poker and beat him into unconsciousness. He claims Nichols had his hand on his revolver when he struck him. Mrs. Ames, the mother-in-law, testifies that Vineyard first struck Nichols a cowardly blow from the back. Vineyard was sent to jail at Huntsville to await his trial.

MARRIAGES.

Chas. Smith and Miss Edith Noel, both of Moberly.

J. Green Griffin and Mrs. E. E. Christy, both of Clifton Hill.

Elmer Downly and Miss Jane Lathrop, both of near Huntsville.

J. J. Higgins of Stanberry and Miss Margaret O'Connell of Moberly.

Walter K. McAnich, aged 20 years, formerly of Marshall, died of pneumonia at his home in Higginsville, Monday.

Miss Etta Ewell of Marshall has traded her millinery store to Wm. Tyler for his merchants' delivery at Independence.

A stove in the Steele school-house, near Blosser, exploded one night last week and burned a hole 14 feet square in the floor of the building.

Arrow Rook had a wolf chase last week when a large grey wolf that had been caught in a trap by one foot, broke the chain and fled, dragging the trap after him.

Don Fowler, the negro who broke into Flynn's store at Slater several weeks ago, was brought from Sedalia to Marshall and lodged in jail there Wednesday.

Mrs. Jennie Gilpin of near Marshall had the misfortune to fall and break her hip last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Rea, of Savannah, Mo.

The general merchandise store at Mt. Leonard belonging to E. P. Grimes was burglarized Sunday night, and Mr. Grimes is offering a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of the burglar.

The police at Slater raided a crap game Saturday night and caught four of the five participants. They were taken into court and fined $5, each, and costs. The man in whose house the game was conducted was fined $50 and costs.

Very early Thursday morning the house occupied by Ed Page, mayor of Marshall, caught fire. The first intimation the family had of it was the fire falling on the beds and awakening them. The house burned down with most of the contents. The property belonged to Miss Stella Hicks and there was $1,600 insurance.

MARRIAGES.

Roy Brightwell of Texas and Miss Myrtle Davis of Slater.

J. F. Allen of Brookfield and Miss Margaret Bates of Miami.

Gus Phillips and Miss May Belle Walker, both of Marshall.

Joseph J. Priest and Miss Ruby P. Poland, both of Slater.

John A. Tater of Saline county and Miss Jennie Miller of Kansas City.

Marvin E. Hayes of Shackelford and Miss Lula L. Mackler of Sweet Springs.

For good stenographic work call at J. D. Taylor's law office.

Scott's Emulsion

is a wonderful food-medicine for all ages of mankind. It will make the delicate, sickly baby strong and well—will give the pale, anemic girl rosy cheeks and rich, red blood. It will put flesh on the bones of the tired, overworked, thin man, and will keep the aged man or woman in condition to resist colds or pneumonia in the winter.
